

BYU

ECONOMICS

VISITING SCHOLAR SERIES

Michael
Mueller-
Smith

University of Michigan

February 6
11:00 AM
381 CB

STUDENT LECTURE

“Diversions in the Criminal Justice System”

Criminal justice diversion is a popular, cost-saving practice that provides low-risk offenders with the opportunity to avoid a criminal record. This talk will present new causal evidence on this intervention and describe how these results inform our understanding of the role justice system plays in shaping economic outcomes in the United States.